A humble woman who was faithful to her Commitments of Consecration Venerable Mother Paula was a very humble and simple person, aware and responsible for her dedication to following Christ. He was a faithful observer of the Vows he had promised to live: Obedience, Chastity and Poverty. There is unanimity in the testimonies that recognize her heroic life. Likewise, other sources of the Cause, in particular the biographical sources, are unanimously favorable in this sense, say the theologian consultants, adding: "The Servant of God exercised to a heroic degree the virtues proper to the consecrated life, especially in the last

Mother Paula

Bulletin No. 61
2023

This was the stage of her life, when, leaving the office of Superior General, with exemplary obedience and humility to set herself apart, without interfering in the government of the Congregation and serenely enduring humiliations.

As for evangelical poverty, it can be said that the testimony of the Servant of God was "impressive": she always lived poor, she died poor, she never sought material goods for herself, wanting to share the poverty of the people she lovingly served. In this she was a true daughter of St. Francis of Assisi. It can therefore be said that the Servant of God, with evangelical radicalism, fled from all worldliness, denying herself and taking up the cross to follow and serve the Lord Jesus Christ, in full communion with the Church."

"The Servant of God lived the evangelical beatitude of the poor in spirit with a witness of humility: she did not love to appear, but attributed everything to the mercy of God and the protection of Our Lady. He offered to do the most humble services in the house, such as portering or washing habits. Once she left the Superiorate, she submitted to the new Mother General and devoted herself – as soon as she could – to helping in the kitchen. In this way, always in humility and poverty, he lived the virtue and vow of religious obedience.

Her chastity was motivated, according to the Constitutions, by love for Jesus the Bridegroom and was lived as a totality of self-giving to the Lord. In one prayer he asked for 'a perfect purity of soul and body'. She took great care to preserve the gift of purity and saw to it that, despite living in the world for reasons of charity, the chastity of her daughters was not threatened or tarnished."

The Venerable Mother received with serenity discredits, falsehoods, disregards, ... not worrying about defending oneself, but rather accepting such moments with deep humility.

SPAIN.Vera, Almería, 05/05/2023. M. J. I. Dear Mother Paula: Here in the kitchen, preparing the food for today. And thanking God for having her.

I want to make known my request to your intercession, and your favor will be clearly manifested on the same day, in the decision made by my daughter.

On January 18, the day of her Feast, in the petitions that we left written to her intercession, being a humble admirer of her maternal tenderness, of her humility towards those who are humiliated and of her perseverance in the Faith, I asked her to please help me, not to leave me.

Today I have my daughter, by my side, back at home, preparing for some tough exams. She did not intend to do so, but it was precisely on the 18th, when my daughter was in Madrid celebrating her Feast Day, with the Sisters, that the next day she called me to tell me that she had decided to leave the Big City and come to Vera.

Things had gone awry in her workplace, and not just because of her. Thank God I have a daughter who is upright in her actions and has a clean soul.

Peace and Good. Always grateful for the good work of your daughters, count on my loyalty.

PANAMA: David, March 2023. Lourdes S. de Vega and grandchildren Ian Chavez, Tiago Ariel Chavez. In the ninth I thank Mother Paula for her intervention, because the children, because they had a cough, could not eat and again thanks to Saint Paula, their health improved; I know that she does not abandon us and once again performs the miracle. Also since last year I have been doing laboratory tests, thyroid ultrasounds, blood pressure, diabetes, and I am coming out excellent, the Doctor tells me to continue with the medicines that I do not lack. But again I assure you that Holy Mother Paula and Mary Most Holy hear my prayers. Thank you eternally.

FOR MOTHER PAULA,
FOUNDER OF THE SISTERS
FRANCISCANS OF THE MOST PUREST CONCEPTION

Today it's going to say my soul
What he really feels
Why Mother Paula
I prayed full of faith.

I trusted her.
He helped me so many times
That with this poem
I want to thank you for that.

I admire his virtues,
his help to the humble;
Your vocation for dedication
It always captivated me.

He cared for the sick
and comforted the sorrowful.
The reason for his life
It touched my heart.

She was sowing blissful
The Precious Seed
Of his greatest desire:
Give to all with love.

And she got excited
Work and sleepless nights in the pious Work of his Congregation.

That is why I pray to God
That gives us joy
to be able to invoke it,
Very soon at the altar.

To keep it going
The Example and the Guide
Of all those who seek true peace.
